ROMANIA

The first wooden, triumphal arch was built hurriedly, after Romania gained its independence (1878), so that the victorious troops could march under it. Another temporary arch was built on the same site, in 1922, after World War I, which was demolished in 1935 to make way for the current triumphal arch, which was inaugurated in September 1936.

Bucharest is Romania's capital and largest city, as well as the most important industrial and commercial center of the country. With 2 million inhabitants in the city proper and more than 2.4 million in the urban area, Bucharest is one of the largest cities in Southeastern Europe.

Bran Castle is a natural monument and landmark in Romania. The fortress is situated on the border between Transylvania and Wallachia, commonly known as "Dracula's Castle". The castle is now a museum, displaying art and furniture collected by Queen Marie.

Romania is situated in the southeastern part of Central Europe and shares borders with Hungary to the northwest, Serbia to the southwest, Bulgaria to the south, the Black Sea to the southeast, Ukraine to the east and to the north and the Republic of Moldova to the east.

Nadia Elena Comaneci, born November 12, 1961 is a Romanian gymnast, winner of three Olympic gold medals at the 1976 Summer Olympics in Montreal and the first female gymnast to be awarded a perfect score of 10 in an Olympic gymnastics event. She also won two gold medals at the 1980 Summer Olympics in Moscow. She is one of the best-known gymnasts in the world. In 2000 Comaneci was named as one of the athletes of the century by the Laureus World Sports Academy.

Iasi is the most important political, economic and cultural centre of the province of Moldavia as well as one of the oldest cities in Romania. Located in the northeastern part of the country, Iasi was for many centuries the crossing point of the most important commercial routes linking Poland, Hungary, Russia and Constantinople.

The Palace of Parliament in Bucharest, Romania is multi-purpose building containing both chambers of the Romanian Parliament. According to the World Records Academy, the Palace is the world's largest civilian building with an administrative function, most expensive administrative building and heaviest building.

IMPRESII

„Pentru mine, proiectul Comenius a însemnat o experiență de viață, o amintire de neuitat și o oportunitate de a conviețui cu o persoană minunată. Am realizat că indiferent de limba pe care o vorbim și de naționalitatea pe care o avem putem crea legături strânse de prietenie. Reuniunea din Lituania a fost o oportunitate minunată de a explora frumusețile unei culturi diferite. Am participat la multe activități educative, am vizitat locuri minunate și am învățat tehnici de editare video. Am reușit să învăț versuri din cântece în limba turcă, italiană sau poloneză, precum și unele expresii în limba lituaniană. Cu lacrimi în ochi, m-am despărțit la final de persoana care m-a găzduit și care mi-a fost ca o soră timp de două săptămâni. Va rămâne mereu în sufletul meu ca o amintire frumoasă. Mă bucur că am avut șansa să iau parte la acest proiect pe care cu siguranță nu îl voi uita niciodată.”
